

NZ Payroll Calculations & Legislation Update

Course Overview

Many New Zealand payrolls are processed in Australia. The NZ payroll environment can be very complex with a wide range of legislative requirements. This course will introduce you to NZ payroll and teach you how to meet your legal obligations.

New Zealand employment legislation is complex and wide ranging in what payroll practitioners have to calculate to comply with the law. This practical course will allow participants to practise the essential calculations to cover a range of employee payment situations. Fully worked examples covering a range of different situations will be provided that can then be used back in the workplace. The course will be run in a workshop format.
